

Lexington Golf Record

Ronnie Eidson Repeats as Champion in 23rd Annual Dugan Aycock Davidson County Amateur.

The 23rd Annual Dugan Aycock Davidson County Amateur was played July 25—26 with a full field of 103 golfers. The field was grouped into five flights after Saturday's rounds, with Lexington's Rodney Thomas leading the way with a 7 under par 64. Ronnie Eidson was two shots behind, firing a 66, and first time entrant Justin Clement recording a 68. Sunday saw only a few low scores as the pins were tucked and the heat was on. First Flighter Jon Hill went low, shooting a Sunday best round of 65, busting out of his flight and into the Championship Flight. Hill ended the event with a 3 under par score of 139 finishing two shots behind Rodney Thomas, who ended Sunday's round with a two over 73, finishing alone in third at 5 under par 137.

Late during Sunday's round, Eidson saw a three shot lead evaporate to one shot when he bogeyed 17 while Clement birdied it. Both Eidson and Clement birdied the 18th hole for Eidson to become a repeat Champion. Eidson also happened to win the Senior Division title as he is 56 years old. Thanks to Kevin Ogburn and Orrell's Food Service for their support with the food that was provided on Saturday and Sunday.

The Junior Golf Tournament will be held Monday and Tuesday August 10-11. The two day event is split into age groups and will start on the back nine. For more information stop in the golf shop and sign up.
