Great deals and Coupons at Golfworththedrive.com

Hopefully the winter season will soon be over. Could the weather be any worse? It seems as though we have had very few decent weekends to play this fall and winter. Oh well, everyone complains about the weather but none of us can do anything about it.

The LMGA (Lexington Men's Golf Association) was finally able to play their December event on Sunday, January 17th after two weather-event postponements. Their next event scheduled for the last Saturday of this short month, February 27th. If you haven't played in an event for awhile or if this would be your first one, all of us would like to see you here that morning. The event will start at 10:00 AM and will be a shotgun start. The sign up is in the shop so stop by or call us at 248-3950.

Speaking of the LMGA, please go look at the calendar section of our home website lexingtongolfclub.com. We have updated it for the entire 2010 season.

To be a member of the LMGA for the 2010 season, all we need is for you to do is to go to the pro shop, give us your name and address and pay the annual dues of $30.00. In return all LMGA members receive a Carolinas / USGA Handicap, ability to play in all LMGA events, the CGA quarterly magazine and special golf shop discounts on balls and gloves.

The Golf Shop is going to try and host some Road Trip Thursdays again this year. Our first event is scheduled for Thursday March 11th and will be played at Oak Valley. More information will be available soon.

Following are a listing of our daily events, a brief description and a little background.
